Fee Instructions and Other Important Information for 2010

- All booking fees are due when you send in your signed contract and are non-refundable.
- Booking and stud fees are as follows:
  - Lokomotion: $1,500 stud fee which includes a $300 booking fee
  - Dreammaster: $1,500 stud fee which includes a $300 booking fee
- We require a credit card account number to secure return of equi-containers. You have five business days to return the container to us after receipt.
- Our stallion collection/lab fee is included in the first collection. It is $250 for each subsequent collection.
- You are responsible for shipping fees from our farm to your station.
- Our handling fee is $300.00 per breeding cycle for mares bred at our farm.
- Stabling for mares during the breeding cycle is $30 per day.
- Your breeding certificate/report will arrive in your first shipment. Please make sure that you and your vet follow the instructions as this is an important document and you will need to retain the original for your records and future registration of the foal. Please do not return any portion of the report to us before your mare is declared at least 60 days in foal or if you decide to wait until the following breeding season to breed.
- Shipment orders must be received by no later than 12:00 PM Pacific Time the day before shipment for overnight delivery and for airport shipments.
- Our breeding shed closes September 1st. We will try to accommodate later breeding, if it does not interfere with the show season.
- We do not ship or collect on Saturdays or Sundays and some rare weekdays if we have a long show. We do ship 5 days a week including Fridays.
